

THIRTEEN MEN PLAYED AT CARDS

Thirteen is indeed unlucky. That number of men were in a room over the Palm Billiard Saloon at midnight. There were cards and poker chips in the same place, and it is alleged that the men were gambling, a game of "twenty-one" being in progress. Lieut. Alfred Mossman, of the police, was sent to the scene and captured the dozen and one, along with a bag full of cards and chips.

At the Police Station the men were booked on a charge of gambling and Charles Moore, one of the crowd, laid down $15 as bail for the entire number. All of the men were good natured and jolly. The names they gave were as follows: Charles Moore, W. Vida, Ed. Williams, R. H. Jones, Ed. Nelson, Paul Jones, Geo. Black, H. Wilson, Jos. Low, Joseph Silva, K. Takata, Mitsuka and Watanabe. All but the first two names were makeshifts.

BUCKEYE CLUB MET LAST EVENING

The Buckeye Club met at the house of Rev. Arthur C. Logan, 1812 Anapuni street last evening and had its usual good time. There were between thirty and forty present. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, who are returning to the mainland, resigned their offices in the club, Mr. Skinner being a member of the executive committee and Mrs. Skinner secretary. Rev. Mr. Logan was elected to succeed Mrs. Skinner and Will Whitney took Mr. Skinner's place. The first entertainment of the evening was a guessing contest on names of noted men of Ohio and this was followed by the old-fashioned game of Consequences. Fruit drink and cake were served.

The Delinquent Debtor's Return. While going to his work the other morning, and meditating upon the fact that he owed a big doctor bill and had only $7.25 with which to pay it, Rufus Geddes, an Evanston carpenter, was accosted by a plainly dressed stranger.

"You're Mr. Geddes, aren't you?" asked the stranger.

"Yes, sir," he replied.

"Used to live in Milwaukee, didn't you?"

"I did."

"Do you remember lending $30 to a man up there named Humphrey Johns about nineteen years ago?"

"Yes, I remember that distinctly."

"He never paid it, did he?"

"Never."

"Well," pursued the stranger, with emotion, "I am Humphrey Johns. I have never forgotten that debt, and I'm going to pay it with interest some day, but I'm a little hard up just now. Do you suppose you could lend me 50 cents for the sake of old times?"

"Chicago Tribune."
